

Broken Rainbow LGBT Domestic Violence Helpline Volunteers Needed

1 in 4 lesbian, gay, bisexual and trans people will experience domestic violence. Broken Rainbow LGBT Domestic Violence Service (UK) provides a helpline service to all LGBT people, their family and friends around the issue of domestic violence.

During hard economic times, we receive increased numbers of calls and so we are looking to recruit more helpline volunteers to support our communities.

Can you give 3hrs a month to support callers? Are you a good communicator who is calm and non judgemental? Do you positively identify as an LGBT person?

Yes? We need you!

Currently we are looking to increase cover on:

Mondays & Thursdays 2pm to 5pm

Mondays & Thursdays 5pm to 8pm

Wednesdays 10am to 1pm.
